FANCY A DAY TRIP?

Here are our suggestions.

Private tours with Hybrid Taxis - Travel in style with their luxurious Mercedes hybrid cars

Art, cocktails and shopping in Glasgow: this tour includes a visit of the stunning Kelvin Grove Art Gallery in the West End, followed by lunch at the Buttery, shopping in the City Centre, and ends in style with cocktails at the Rogano - POA

The Ultimate Harry Potter Private Tour: we will drive you to Fort William, you will hop on the steam train to Mallaig, and we will meet you again at the end of the ride to take you to Eilean Donnan Castle. On the way back, we will stop for dinner at the Drovers Inn in Loch Lomond - POA

Or to do by yourself....

Kelburn Castle – 20 min away

<https://www.kelburnestate.com/>

Built around 1143, Kelburn is a vibrant historic rural castle decorated in the transient art form of Brazilian graffiti, an eye-catching bit of history to go and visit. It is still the private home of Earl of Glasgow and his family, and it offers plenty of activities for the whole family. It offers Castle tours, as well as a Secret Forest, and Adventure Park, the Wild West Saloon, an indoor play area, equestrian centre, beautiful gardens and a lovely café.

East Yonderton Farm – 15 min away

<http://www.eastyondertonfarm.co.uk/info.html>

East Yonderton is a family run Renfrewshire soft fruit farm near Inchinnan, just beside Glasgow Airport. The farm has been growing soft fruit since 1926.

During the fruit season the farm is open daily for picking your own fruit and fruit can also be ordered ready picked for collection on weekdays

Culzean Castle – 1h away

<https://www.nts.org.uk/visit/places/culzean>

This is by far our favourite family day out. The guided tours are very interesting and good fun. There is a LEGO figurines treasure hunt around the castle for the little ones, and plenty of activities and play areas around the enormous and wonderful park. The wall garden is stunning, and the cafés serves lovely food.

Dumfries House – 45 min away

<https://dumfries-house.org.uk/>

Dumfries House is one of Britain's most beautiful stately homes. Set in 2,000 acres of land, this stunning estate and 18th-century house with its unrivalled collection of original furniture has something for everyone.

Saved by the intervention of His Royal Highness, The Prince Charles, Duke of Rothesay in 2007, Dumfries House combines the neoclassical architecture of Robert Adam with the furniture of Thomas Chippendale and leading 18th-century Scottish cabinet makers. Visitors can explore this stunning 2,000 acre estate 365 days a year, with free entry and parking.

Troon Beach - 40min away

<https://www.visitscotland.com/info/towns-villages/troon-beach-p248051>

Our favourite beach in the area. It's very deep and wide, perfect for a nice walk or a picnic. There are also a couple of good restaurants in Troon and shops.

Loch Lomond and the Trossachs – 30 min away

<https://www.lochlomond-trossachs.org/>

A fine meal by the water's edge, with snow-capped mountains in the distance and the promise of a long walk in the woods tomorrow. In Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park, you'll find wild scenery, thrilling history and superb local food and drink - all of which is easy to get to.

Luss is a beautiful little village well worth a visit. <https://www.lochlomond-trossachs.org/discover-the-park/towns-villages/luss/>

Blair Drummond Safari Park – 55 min away

<https://www.blairdrummond.com/>

A top family attraction and home to over 350 rare and exotic animals. Meet Scotland's only giraffes, experience the monkey drive-thru, immerse yourself in our sea lion and bird of prey presentations, take a boat trip to Chimp Island, explore our amazing new dinosaur exhibit and run wild in our giant adventure play area.

Located just outside Stirling, Blair Drummond Safari Park is one of Scotland's most exciting visitor attractions and the perfect place for a family day out.

We're part of a worldwide network of zoos which cares for rare species, we are part of the Endangered Species Breeding Programme, and we support conservation projects in the UK and around the world.

Blair Drummond Safari Park promises a fun filled day for all the family. Buy tickets from our website and get ready for a WILD day out!
